

Learners: Grade 7

Language focus: Participles

Objective:

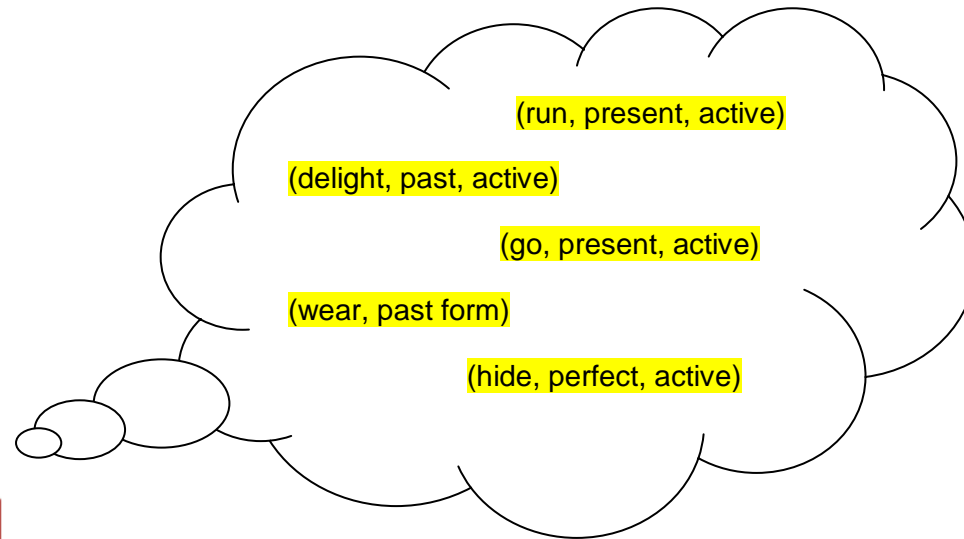

- Give the correct form of participles suitable for the sentences

Form/ Manner: Fill in the blank, word pool

A. Directions: Fill in the blanks with the correct form of the participle by referring to the given clues within the parentheses.

1. _____ (anticipate: present active) an attack by the rebels, the people armed themselves.
2. Last night's episode of the teleserye Ina, Kapatid, Anak _____ (be: past) a revelation of Celine and Marguax's connection with each other.
3. The _____ (steal: past form) articles were returned.
4. The report _____ (write: present passive) is very important.
5. (study, perfect active) _____ all night, he student was sleepy the next day.

Mario is reviewing for his final examination in English. He has difficulty on the topic about participles. He needs your help. Can you help him figure out the suitable participle needed in each of the sentences?

1. He came _____ from nowhere.
2. Traffic of cargo trucks and container vans _____ in and out of the harbor at all hours of the day is heavy.
3. _____ with the result of the tournament they celebrated in a night club.
4. _____ the gifts they walked in innocently.
5. _____ out the survivors were scarcely able to speak.