

University of the Philippines-Cebu
Social Sciences Cluster
Master of Education

SAMPLE WORKSHEET

Learners : Grade Seven

Linguistic focus : Grammar (Subordinating Conjunctions)

Objectives:

- recall the different types of subordinating conjunctions and their functions;
- use appropriate subordinating conjunctions to complete sentences;
- connect clauses to make logical complex sentences.

Format/ Manner: Matching/ Sentence Completion

Part A. Matching

Directions: Connect the sentences in Colum A to the clauses in Column B using any appropriate subordinating conjunction from the box to come up with a complex sentence. The first one is done for you.

Column A	Subordinating Conjunction	Column B
1. Call your brother	before	a. it takes him all night.
2. Ronald is going to finish his homework _____		b. it makes me nervous.
3. I feel happy _____		c. you go to the beach.
4. She got the job _____		d. she had no experience.
5. I don't drink coffee _____		e. she calls me

in order to	even if	since	although as	before	whenever	so that

Part B. Sentence Completion

Directions: The following are faulty sentences. Read the sentences carefully and change the subordinating conjunctions used to make it correct. The first one is done for you.

1. Although Mei Lei can't speak English, she can't go to university in America.
- Since/ Because/ As
2. Because it was raining, I didn't get wet.
3. I will be late today so that my car has broken down.
4. Unless I had seen that movie three times, I watched it again.
5. My sister can't wait whereas she gets her new bike.

Answer Key:

Part A.

2. even if it takes him all night
3. whenever she calls me
4. although she had no experience
5. as/ since it makes me nervous

Part B.

2. Although/ Even though/ Though
3. since/ as/ because
4. Although/ Even though/ Though
5. Until

Prepared by:

ROMMEL D. DIONSON
GEA ROSELLOSA